Dear Parents

I wish to start this week's newsletter by saying what stars all your children are! This week's performances have been amazing with every child putting in 100% learning lines, their songs, actions and then performing with such talent, enjoyment and enthusiasm. This week's 'Stars of the Week' are all of St Peter's for working so hard and putting on such a fantastic show.

I don't think we have ever had such a year, with so many children being ill and others having to step in at the last minute; it has almost been a case of the 'understudy of the understudy'!!! However, nobody has complained, the children have all worked together, supported each other, learnt extra lines, actions etc and performed on stage at short notice. Well done to you all for demonstrating what a great team you all are. This week's 'Good Disciples of the Week' is for all of you for being so supportive, helpful and such good friends to each other.

The children didn't do all that on their own. A huge thanks to all the staff for the hours and enthusiasm they have shown. A special mention to Mrs Boyle for her musical and director skills, Mrs Reading and Mrs Waddup for their organisation, visual effects and programme, Mrs Coone, Mrs Dolan and Mrs Donohue for the costumes and props, Mrs Sandalls for the tickets, Mr Atkins for staging and Mrs Hughes for operating the sound system.
