Dear Parents

As we come to the end of another term, I look back and wonder where the time has gone? Thank you for all your support and help over the term. It has been another busy, productive one, with the children achieving some amazing things. Have you seen the great art work completed by our Faith Ambassadors?

St Lucy's and St Bernadette's participated in Ancient Egypt and Roman workshops, St Cecilia's went on a local history fieldtrip and members of the Eco Council attended the local Eco Conference. Thank you to all the staff and children for their hard work.

Mass

Match Report Lane End Match

Although we were all tired from the match against Chepping View, we were pumped to play. It was a muddy start and the penalty area was like a bottomless pit of mud. Fernando got soaked with the rain and our boots turned brown. We scored two goals in the first half by Zack. In the second half, Conor scored a tap in from a corner. Sid and Nikolas were our defence because Damian was our new centre midfield with Carter and Sri as our speedy wingers. Sri scored a lovely goal. The final score was 0- 4.

Thank you to the spectators and Mrs Thomas for her coaching skills.

Conor (Captain), Year 5

Last night the team played Frieth at home. Well done to all the team for a fantastic result of 4 - 0. Thank you to Wayne and our supporters.
